- II. Meeting, June 10, 1968, Castillion Room, Shamrock Hilton Hotel, 4:30 p.m., Chris Patrick, Director, presiding.
- A. Motion by Don Fauls, Florida State, that the annual district dues be set at five dollars ($5.00). Motion seconded by Leroy Mullins, Mississippi State. Passed unanimously. (NOTE: See motion of second meeting of June 11, 1968--dues reset at $10.00).
- B. Motion by Clint Houy, Atlanta Falcons, that District dues will be assessed with the National dues, and will be due on September 1. A reminder notice will be sent on August 1. Seconded by Buddy Taylor, Tennessee A & I. Motion passed unanimously.
- C. The following items were discussed by the membership:
1. There is a need for trainers at the high school level as expressed by Chris Patrick from the discussion of the National Board of Directors meeting. There is a need in Texas, where thirteen schools have job openings for teacher-trainers. Salary begins at $6,500 and goes up.
 2. District 9 will host the 1973 National Athletic Trainers Association convention in Atlanta, Georgia. The meeting sites through the year 1974 are:
 - a. 1969 -- Cincinnati, Ohio
 - b. 1970 -- Denver, Colorado
 - c. 1971 -- Baltimore, Maryland
 - d. 1972 -- St. Louis, Missouri
 - e. 1973 -- Atlanta, Georgia
 - f. 1974 -- Minneapolis, Minnesota
 3. It is requested that all the trainers in the District fill out the NCAA injury reports and return them to the NCAA. This past fall, 485 were sent out, and 120 were returned.

4. Jack Rockwell, St. Louis Football Cardinals, was elected N.A.T.A. Executive Secretary for 1968-69.
 - a. Applicants for the permanent Secretary's position are:
 1. Bud Miller, Ball State University, Muncie, Indiana
 2. Gordon Graham, Mankato State University, Mankato, Minnesota
 3. Mike Cleary, Director of the National Association of Athletic Directors of America, Indianapolis, Indiana
5. The position of Executive Secretary will be made into a permanent one. In order to achieve this end, the national dues will be raised by five dollars over the period of the next two years, so that the N.A.T.A. will have enough money to pay the salary of the individual.
6. It was decided that District 9 will meet each year on the evening preceeding registration at the national convention, at approximately 6:30 p.m.
7. There was enthusiastic response to the discussion that the SEC, OVC, Gulf Coast Conference, Independents, Junior Colleges, and remaining institutions, contribute money for the advancement of District 9's athletic training endeavors.
- D. There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 5:30 p.m.

III. Meeting, June 11, 1968, Lecture Room, Shamrock Hilton Hotel, 12 Noon, Chris Patrick, Director, presiding.

- A. Director Patrick informed the members that he had talked with Secretary-Treasurer Goostree, Alabama, via long distance telephone. Goostree informed him that there is approximately $300 in the district savings account and approximately $85 in the district checking account.
- B. It was brought to the members' attention that from past district legislation, that a supplement of $100 be given any trainer who represents the District at the Pan-American Games or the Olympic Games.
 1. This supplement to be sent to Buddy Taylor and Dave Wike, University of Miami, for the coming Olympic Games in October, 1968.

C. There was much discussion regarding District reorganizational ideas. Among the items brought to the attention of the members by Warren Ariail, New Orleans Saints, were the following:

1. District Dues should be raised to $10.
2. All conferences, independents, junior colleges, and remaining institutions in the district should contribute money to the District for athletic training advancement.
 - a. We should have an emergency fund for flowers in the event of sickness or death to a member.
 - b. We should work closely with our team doctors.
 - c. We should have a District Clinic.
 - d. We should help with the Pan American and Olympic Games.

D. There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 12:45 p.m.

E. Director Patrick called another meeting for 4:30 p.m. in the same location.
