

MINUTES OF 1982 ANNUAL BUSINESS MEETING OF THE SOUTHEAST ATHLETIC TRAINERS ASSOCIATION

The 1982 Annual Business Meeting of the Southwest Athletic Trainers Association was called to order by District Director Roy Don Wilson. Taking minutes was Secretary/Treasurer Doug May.

The first order of business was to recognize the outstanding contribution of Bobby Barton, our past District Director. On behalf of the district Mr. Wilson presented Mr. Barton with a portable color TV and the thanks of the membership for the many years he has led our district.

Mr. Wilson then recognized some of the members who had contributed much time and effort to making the meeting what it is. They were Jerry Rhea, Program Chairman, his assistant Jay Shoop, Chuck Kimmel, Exhibitor Chairman who did an outstanding job in his first year, and Tom Simmons and Roy Dunn who taught the CPR course.

A discussion was then held as to next years meeting site. Places considered were Knoxville, Tn. and Suwannee, Ga. Meeting days were also discussed as to whether to continue with the Tuesday through Thursday format or go back to a Thursday Through Saturday format. This was tabled until the following day's meeting.

Doug May, then presented a Treasurer's report for the mid year. A copy of this report was attached to the minutes. The balance on hand as of June 30, 1982 in all district accounts was $12,791.42.

Mr. Wilson then announced for those that were not in attendance at the Seattle meeting that Mr. Preston Johnson of Eastern Kentucky University was the 1982 winner of the District IX Memorial Scholarship. A cash stipend of $500.00 was awarded to Mr. Johnson. Also, Gary Harrelson, of the University of Southern Mississippi was a winner of the Chuck Cramer Scholarship awarded by the N.A.T.A.

Mr. Wilson informed each state that there must be a licensure contact person for the national office to be able to contact. If the state does not have one, one needs to be appointed.

At his time, Mr. Wilson turned the podium over to Mr. Barton the new president of the N.A.T.A. The highlight of his report were as follows.

1. The Board of Directors has instructed Mr. McIntyre to research the subjects of executive director of the N.A.T.A., inflation effectson the operation of the N.A.T.A., the use of a computer to better organize the national office, and the possible use of a marketingexpert for the N.A.T.A.

Minutes of S.E.A.T.A. Business Meeting in Seattle

The Meeting of the Southeast Athletic Trainers Association in Seattle at the National Clinic and Symposium of the N.A.T.A. was called to order by District Director Roy Don Wilson. Minutes were taken by Lloyd Knott.

At the beginning Mr. Wilson advised everyone to check the computer printout for address or name changes.

Those in attendance were informed that all the amendments presented by District IV on constitutional amendment were at present defeated as they were written.

New N.A.T.A. president Bobby Barton of District IX spoke briefly commending the District and advised that he will be calling on District members for help as his term progresses.

Jack Rødgren spoke briefly on certification changes to meet National Commission for Health Certifying Agencies Requirements. It is felt that apprenticeship must stay and that certification not be restricted to curriculum graduates.

Al Green reported that the certification committee is currently working on a new oral ad written format for the certification test.

It was announced that the 1984 national meeting will be held in Nashville and a committee of Dan Campbell, Jack Redgren, and Tim Kerin has been appointed to act as host athletic trainers.

The format of where future conventions will be held is more than likely to be changed after the year 1988.

Jerry Rhea spoke about the upcoming S.E.A.T.A. meeting to be held at Suwanee, Georgia. He gave a brief description of what is to be expected and the list of speakers as they currently stand.

The meeting was then adjourned.
