

Lauren A. Self, LAT, ATC

Lauren Self is currently the Athletic Training Supervisor and Performance Center Coordinator at King's Daughters Medical Center in Brookhaven, MS. Her primary responsibility is oversight of the athletic training; strength and condition staff and the services they provide to area high schools and colleges. She received a Bachelor of Science in Athletic Training from the University of West Alabama in May 2009. Prior to coming to into her role at King's Daughters she was the Head Athletic Trainer at Covich Lincoln Community College in Wesson, MS; Alcorn State University in Lorman, MS; and Alabama A&M University in Normal, AL. She has been involved in her state associations since her student days at West Alabama. She is currently serving as the Mississippi Athletic Trainers' Association secretary. She has served as MARCOM committee chair to SEATA; and CVENT App Administrator for the MATA Clinical Symposium & Members Meeting. She is a resident of Monticello, MS.