

THE DISTRICT NINE NEWSLETTER

July 1969

The District 9-3 dinner at the Living Room in Cincinnati was a pleasurable event to "kickoff" the 1969 National Athletic Trainers Association Convention. Maybe we can make it an annual event.

*****

On June 28, 1969, Pat Dyer of Georgia Tech and his assistants hosted the Coaches All-American Team in Atlanta. From the viewer's easy chair it looked like Pat and his men did a marvelous job.

*****

During the weekend of June 28-29, the National AAU Track and Field Competition was held in Miami at the Miami Dade Junior College. The Medical Staff and Trainers Staff consisted of: Dr's. Paul Jerett, David Becker, Robert Tindall, Phillip Chastain, Patrick Barry, Joseph Kalbac, and David Sime. Trainers David Wike, Walter Pomerko, and Bernard Yaffa from the University of Miami worked with Robert Lundy of the Miami Dolphins Football Club and James Kirton of Miami Dade Junior College, North, and Ronald Lawman, Miami Dade Junior College, South. To assist the trainers were student trainers Hugh Jessop, Miami Dade Junior College, South and Bill Baggott also from the MDJC, South campus. Two men were from the Miami Dade Junior College, North Campus: Allen Schokley and Nelson Pruett. John Anderson from Washington State and Larry Kellogg of Palmetto also were student trainers.

*****

I hope that all of you had a chance to enjoy the Fourth of July holiday. I had a chance to do some fishing. Had a real good day at it.

*****

Mickey Cobb, Georgia Southern, has gotten together the athletic training supplies for a group of ten American gymnasts who will travel to the Far East, July 14 for eight weeks. The group will display their talents as well as promote goodwill.

*****

On July 23 the First Annual Athletic Symposium is to be held at Georgia Southern College, Statesboro. Dr. Fred L. Allman, Jr., will speak on Orthopedic Problems. Dr. Allman is from Atlanta.

*****

By now the District 9 Pro-Trainers: Warren Airail, New Orleans Saints; Bob Lundy, Miami Dolphins; and, Jerry Rhea, Atlanta Falcons are getting their players in condition for the pre-season competition and seasonal play. I hope they all experience success this year.

*****

Dr. Fred Allman, Atlanta, Pat Dyer, Georgia Tech, and Warren Morris, Georgia, will be members of a panel to discuss heat illness at the Georgia Coaches Clinic in Macon, Georgia, August 6-7-8.

*****

JOB OPPORTUNITIES

Miami Dade Junior College, North Campus
11380 N.W. 27th Avenue
Miami, Florida 33167

Contact: Dr. Demie J. Mainieri
Division of Physical Education and Athletics

*****

Be sure and send me your news so that we can put together another newsletter.

Mickey