II. Motion was made to accept last year's minutes as sent out in the District Newsletter during the summer of 1972.

- A. The motion was made by Ken Murray.
- B. Motion seconded by Dick Milder.
- C. Motion passed.

III. Treasurer's Report was accepted

- A. Motion made by Bubba Porche.
- B. Seconded by Ernie Golin.
- C. Motion passed.

IV. Convention Report

- A. People to run projectors
- B. Introduction of speakers

V. Directors Report

- A. Liability of $25,000 for $25 per year. This is mandatory for all trainers by Insurance Company. The board rejected.
- B. Helms Hall of Fame--eight people were rejected by the Committee. This was changed from a unanimous vote to a majority vote of the 7 members.
- C. Convention Site for:
  - 1978--Seattle or Las Vegas
  - 1979--Central
  - 1980--East
  - 1981--Central
  - 1982--West
  - 1983--Central

District 9 is both Central and East. Do we want N.O. and Miami in say 1979 and 1980, or 1983, Miami.

Members discussed the possibilities--District 9 in 1980--Miami
1979--N.O.

- D. ACT or CAT? -- no difference to our members.
- E. NATA representatives:
  - 1. Olympic Committee--Medlar
  - 2. Better Olympic Committee--3 representatives in each state and 3 in D.C. for a total of 150.
  - 3. American Academy Pediatrics -- Malacrea
  - 4. AAHPER--Bud Miller
  - 5. American College Health Association--Gordon W. Dotson
  - 6. American College Sports Medicine -- Delforge
  - 7. American Corrective Therapy Association--Frank Randall
  - 8. AMA Committee on Medical Aspects Sports--Gunn
  - 9. APTA--George

  - 11. NCAA Rules Committee--Davis, Morris
  - 12. NFSHSAA--Hoover
  - 13. NOCSAE--Sullivan
  - 14. NCAA Drug Education Committee--Hart
- F. Female trainers for Olympics
- G. Adhoc Committee for Accreditation:
  - Phil Donnelly
  - Frank George
  - Otho David

Decided to straight to HEW instead of through AMA.

- H. Athletic Care Act
Know what you are talking about either if you are for or against it.
There was a discussion led by Jim Goostree as to any further information from what was sent out. High schools would be against it.
Much discussion was on this bill.

Dear Steve:

Have moved to Atlanta to work with Dr. Allman. Sent my application for District transfer to Joe Abraham so you should be hearing from him shortly. Would appreciate your sending my new address to the District membership with your next Newsletter or other correspondence. Thanks so much for your help in this matter. Best wishes for a good year.

Sincerely,

Jack Rockwell
