

DISTRICT NINE NATIONAL ATHLETIC TRAINERS ASSOCIATION

NEWSLETTER

March, 1970

A harty welcome to Roy Don Wilson. Roy Don was formerly at the Citadel in Charleston, S. C., and now the head trainer at Kentucky.

Chris Patrick is now the head trainer at the University of Florida. Chris replaces Brady Greathouse who is now planning to head-up an athletic training center for the county school system in the Gainesville, Florida area.

Jim Goostree, University of Alabama, recently held a trainers' clinic at Florence State University in Florence, Alabama. Heard it was a real fine affair, Jim.

Mickey Cobb and his student assistants: Stratton Karatassos and Danny Boatright have been busy! On February 25, 26, 27, and 28, they were host trainers for the Georgia Junior College Basketball Tournament. On February 28, a.m., they held a trainers' clinic in Savannah, Georgia for the area coaches. And, on March 6 and 7 the South Atlantic NCAA College Basketball tournament was held at their school--Georgia Southern.

HOW ABOUT THIS SUCCESS STORY!: Don Fauls' assistant, Bill Zigeler, is now Head Trainer of the Washington Senators. Bill is extremely happy to be there because Ted Williams has always been his baseball idol. Bill has a young son. His name is Ted Williams Zigeler. Only in America...Don is looking for a full-time assistant. Write: Don Fauls

Mickey Cobb, Georgia Southern College, Statesboro, has an article in the winter issue of the Georgia Health, Physical Education and Recreation Journal. The title: "Selecting and Training the Student Trainer."

THE SPORTSMAN'S PRAYER

Dear God, help me to be a good sport and a good loser in this game of life.

I don't ask to be the pitcher or for any prominent place in the line-up; play me anywhere You need me.

I only ask that You give me the patience, courage, and stamina to give You the best I've got in every game.

If all the hard drives seem to come my way, Lord, I thank You for the compliment.

Help me always to remember that You won't ever let anything come my way that I cannot handle, and help me to take the bad bounces as part of the game.

Help me to understand that the game of life is full of hard knocks, bad hops, and foul tips, and make me thankful for them.

Help me to get so that the harder they come, the better I will like it, and grant that I shall never sidestep one that is too hot to handle, nor alibi, whimper or complain that I have had a raw deal or that the game was a frame-up.

Use me wherever You will to play the game in such a way that You will have no regrets for giving me the chance; and finally, when we reach the last inning and the evening shadows are gathering, grant that I may win Thy decision and be counted safe at Home. Amen.

I have a supply of the NATA cloth shoulder patches in again. These are on sale for $1 each. The district has money tied up in these and I would like to move these out.

Received an excellent response for the Russ Miller fund. Thanks to everyone for such a fine response.

Several jobs are open--you should have received a card on them. Be sure to let me know if you know of any others; I would like to be able to get a card out on these jobs when they open.

If you have a student trainer who is eligible for the William E. Newell Scholarship, be sure to send the application you received in a previous mailing back to Fran Sheridan at Lafayette College, Easton, Pennsylvania.

I have an opening for a grad assistant. If you know of anyone, let me know right away--real good deal for someone.

Heard that George Tyler formerly of Bike is now with Spotlight Co.

Several new members in District 9. Welcome to our district, gentlemen.
